UNION SQUARE

I'm worried about the birds overhead
Peppered on the lawn, the homeless nap in the shade
Lovers sun bathe sprawled on colorful beach towels
The billowy ground is soaking through my pants
I'm worried about the birds overhead

INTERVENTION

A pudgy hand
destroying green skyscrapers and sacrificing them to the wind.

LYING PART I

It appears as if we stopped lying.
In fact, we are better at it.

LYING PART II

Unconsciously deceiving oneself is an effective deceiver of others.

CURIOSITY

Curiosity killed the cat.
Curiosity saved the cats.

AMERICAN IDOLS

Idolizing is the relentless pursuit for predetermined packaging.

IMPAIRED

Visual saturation compromises
nonvisual senses
and abilities.
Being overwhelmed with anxiety
is normative,
a fee.

DECISION MAKING

Many senators were still not declaring a public position.
Many senators were still not declaring a position.

POWERFUL RESPONSE

Ignoring nonviolence is a winning example of passive resistance.

ALLEGIANCE

Selecting the most qualified candidate in a society that doesn't value intelligence is corruptly suicidal.

VOTING

Comfort in abstinence

TRADEOFF

Freedom in one instance is entrapment in another.

Freedom is ultimately a vacation
from the promise of being free.

MUSIC AS A NARCOTIC IN PUBLIC PLACES

Self-medicated senselessness
Disregard tunnel
Glazed gaze with an omni focus Finger twitches, foot spasms
Control and signal loss

COMMERICAL FIGHT

Epileptic remote control dodging ads
Songs played successively without ends
Call waiting away long distances
An entire cyberspace insulated with lies

LOST

Objects are lost when _____ changes.

- a. physicality
- b. context
- c. ownership
- d. perception

AMERICAN ANALOGY

Cream pie : humor :: apple pie : _____

- a. obesity
- b. heart disease
- c. masturbation
- d. gingivitis

ART AND POLITICS

Politics is the traditional toxin for diluting.

Art should use pure solvents,
manufactured and carefully distilled from ideas.

Industrial grade solvent is produced from bias and contains impurities,
as well as a strong, unpleasant odor.

EVOLUTION

Artists sleepwalk
where knowledge doesn't exist.

INGREDIENTS

Contains irrational flavors

WINTER

Post-blizzard meltdown and freeze produces the world's most treacherous sidewalks.

Invisible patches of ice are laden with a landmine of canine feces.

Often, the only traction found in the winter is slogging in shit.

DEPRESSION PART I

Chemical manipulation drastically disfigures triggers.

The dejected rely on others
to transmit and translate reality.

DEPRESSION PART II

Dissatisfaction with highly efficient productivity
and low yield happiness is inadequate in satisfying
the cultural expectations
for survival.
